3 Fun for charity
Tokio Marine Life Insurance Malaysia Bhd deputy chief executive officer Yoshiaki Okabe (left) presenting a mock cheque to The Shelter Home executive director Cheok Hoong Poh (right) during the charity motor treasure hunt event. The hunt, which was flagged off at 1 Utama Shopping Centre, saw participants going around Klang Valley for clues in the quest to win the first prize of RM2,500. The hunt ended at Menara Tokio Marine Life where the participants were treated to lunch. The registration fees collected from the event was donated to The Shelter Home for Children and Make-A-Wish Malaysia.
